

Spectrums Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy is effective on July 24th, 2015.

This Privacy Policy was last amended May 3rd, 2016.

Welcome to Spectrums.me, a comprehensive network where individuals compile their online identity/persona into one location. Your privacy is our highest priority and unless otherwise stated to be public, we assure you that all of your personal identifiable information we collect, track, store and/or use will be considered extremely sensitive and therefore will be kept confidential. Our goal is to make your user experience as safe, secure and enjoyable as possible. This Privacy Policy agreement was created to outline specific details regarding the manner in which we collect, track, store and/or use your personal identifiable information and content. This Privacy Policy "Agreement" has been designed in consideration with Spectrums Inc. and all of its services and does not represent, condone or endorse the privacy actions or practices of any related third party networks, websites, applications or companies affiliated with Spectrums Inc.

With your continued use of the Spectrums website at www.spectrums.me ("Spectrums site") or any Spectrums mobile application (e.g. Spectrums iOS, Spectrums Android) ("Spectrums App") and Spectrums mobile web, which are provided by Spectrums Inc., you hereby warrant that you have read, agreed and accepted, without limitations or exceptions, to the details outlined in this Privacy Policy Agreement as well as the Terms of Service Agreement. If at any point you wish to report an issue regarding a general or specific privacy concern, please feel free to contact us by the following mean(s) listed below:

By email: info@spectrums.me

2. Types Of Data We Collect

We collect the following types of data (collectively, referred to as "Data"):

- (a) "Personal Data" means data that allows someone to identify or contact you such as your name, address, phone number, email address as well as any other non-public information about you.
When registering or when editing a Spectrums account, we use Facebook to verify that the registering party is a real individual. The Personal Data collected from you belongs to Spectrums and some of your Personal Data (such as your name, age, gender, city you reside in and occupation, interests) may be visible on your Spectrum and/or used to facilitate the Search tool and Explore page. We may share this information with participating networks, affiliates, websites, apps and/or companies in order to offer the opportunity to enhance your Spectrums experience.

- (b) "Anonymous Data" means data that is not connected or linked to your Personal Data and does not, by itself, permit the identification of individual persons.
- (c) "Public Data" means specific data about your profile that is meant to be, but not necessarily displayed publicly such as name, age, city/location, occupation, about, applications, networks, websites, interests, email, phone number and SID (Spectrum ID).

2.1 Profile

Spectrums uses Facebook to authenticate the user. Upon registration, you will receive a number known as your SID (Spectrum identification) that is unique to you. Sharing this number with others will make your spectrum of networks instantly accessible through spectrums.me website and/or Spectrums' mobile applications. We may collect Personal Data from you such as your photo, name, location, age, occupation, about, interests, links that associate networks, websites, applications, companies and any other information you voluntarily add to your profile on the Spectrums Website or is generated by your use of Spectrums.

2.2 Feedback/ Support

If you provide us with feedback or contact us via email for support, we will collect your name, SID and email address as well as any other content included in the email, in order to respond effectively to you. For technical support, we may also request additional information from you.

2.5 Sharing your SID

You can share your Spectrums profile to any application, website or network. If you choose to share your status, we thank you! You've made connecting and engagement much easier, effective and complete for yourself and others.

3. Information Storing

Spectrums uses Amazon Web Services for storing, processing and transferring Data, content and information. Amazon has multiple data centers located in different countries around the globe.

3.1 Device information of data collected via Technology

We will collect an ID that is unique to your mobile device ("Device ID") on which you installed the Spectrums App. For example, if you installed Spectrums on your iPhone, we store your UDID (unique device identifier). We may create a hashed version of your device ID and use it to log you into your account. We may store your device ID and/or your hashed device ID with other information we collect about you such as your profile information, networks in your spectrum and messages to maintain backend organization and troubleshooting in the event of any issues.

3.1 Spectrums

Spectrums may use cookies to enable our servers to recognize your web browser and tell us how and when you use Spectrums' Services. A cookie is a small amount of information that is stored in your web browser, which may contain information about you and the way you use the internet and services like Spectrums. We use cookies to identify our users, provide automatic login, and personalize your Spectrums experience. We may also use cookies embedded in emails to help figure out whether anyone is actually reading the drivel that we write.

You can turn cookies off on your web browser, but if you do, Spectrums may not work properly, and in some cases, you may not be able to log into Spectrums at all.

There are many other third party services and web sites that may place cookies in your browser. Our privacy policy only covers our use of Spectrums cookies, not cookies used by third parties.

4. How Collected Information is Used

4.1 General use of your Personal Data.

We use your Personal Data in the following ways and as described elsewhere in this privacy policy: 1) to identify you as a member of Spectrums service; 2) to continually enhance and improve our service; 3) to provide the services you request; 4) to respond to your inquiries related to support, abuse, employment, disputes and any other requests; 5) to provide you with promotional and personalized offers to enhance your online experience. We understand that lots of these can be annoying, and we will do our best to only show you what we would appreciate to see ourselves as well.

4.2 Creation of Anonymous Data.

We may create Anonymous Data records from Personal Data by excluding information (such as your name) that makes the data personally identifiable to you. We use this Anonymous Data to analyze request and usage patterns so that we may enhance our service. Spectrums reserves the right to use Anonymous Data for any purpose and disclose Anonymous Data to third parties at its sole Discretion.

5. Disclosure of your Personal Data

You understand that when you use the Spectrums website and app, as a default, your profile information defined above is public and other users of the Spectrums website and app can see your Spectrum page. Do not include private information on your profile that you do not want to be viewed publicly. You hereby consent to the disclosure of your profile information as described above.

You hereby consent to the disclosure as described above.

6. Affiliates and Acquisitions

We may share some or all of your Personal Data with, but not limited to, our partner companies, subsidiaries, joint ventures and/or other companies under the common control ("Affiliates") in which case we will require our Affiliates to honor this privacy policy. If another company acquires our company, business, or our assets, that company will possess the Personal Data collected by us and will assume the rights and obligations regarding your Personal Data as described in this Privacy Policy.

7. Changes to your Personal Data

You may change certain fields of your profile information by editing your profile on the Spectrums Platforms. You may request deletion of your Personal Data by us, but please note that we may be legally required to keep this information and not delete it (or to keep this information for a certain time, in which case we will comply with your deletion request only after we have fulfilled such requirements). When we delete any information, it will be deleted from the active database, but may remain in our archives. We may keep your SID, hashed SID, and your usage history (networks and directory) for administrative purposes.

8. Security Measures

Spectrums Inc. is committed to creating a safe and secure environment. We have implemented various measures to minimize security risks, misuse and misrepresented information that we have direct control and access to. However, through our efforts, we cannot guarantee that all the measures in effect will 100% protect you against third party individuals, companies or hackers from illegally gaining access and possession to your personal and confidential information. If you feel that you have been a victim of such events or are aware of malicious activity including fake Spectrum accounts, we kindly ask you to report this issue to info@spectrums.me immediately.

9. Privacy Policy Modifications

Spectrums, in its sole discretion, reserves the right, at any point, to modify, change, add or delete any portion(s) or section(s) of this Privacy Policy agreement. The most current version of this Privacy Policy agreement will govern the manner in which Spectrums promotes and enforces their privacy practices. All modified, changed, added or deleted information from this agreement will be posted here and communicated by email to all Spectrums users and/or clearly demonstrated the next time they visit Spectrums. If at any point, without exception or limitation, you do not agree and accept these changes, we kindly ask you to stop using the Spectrums services immediately. By your continued use you hereby accept and agree to the changes. We will do our best to inform you of changes, but please check back frequently for any modifications. Let's make this happen together.

10. Special Cases

We have demonstrated that personally identifiable information, content or user networks will be maintained in our database and kept private; however we may, with a reasonable doubt provide such information to satisfy laws, privacy regulations and other authoritative governmental requests.

This Privacy Policy is effective as of July 24, 2015.
